1. The meeting was called to order at 7 p.m. in the Colebrook Community & Senior Center.
2. Potential K-6 educational collaboration between the towns was discussed.
3. The opportunity to consider learnings from the 2013-15 study was mentioned, as well as the benefit of soliciting public opinion early in the process.
4. No decisions were made regarding a path forward to explore options, but many good ideas were shared by parents, Board of Ed members and school staff.
5. Both Boards of Selectmen reinforced their commitment to an inclusive and transparent exploration process.
6. The meeting was adjourned at 7:58 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Brad Bremer
Chair
